Anderson Lee, Vice Chairman of Sustainable Fashion Business Consortium Joins The Textile Council as General Committee Member

HONG KONG, June 2013 – Anderson Lee, Vice Chairman of Sustainable Fashion Business Consortium (SFBC) joins the Textile Council as General Committee Member.

Through nominations, Lee was chosen to join the committee along with Dr. Gordon Yen, Executive Director of Fountain Set (Holdings) and Chairman of The Hong Kong Association of Textile Bleachers, Dyers, Printers and Finishers.

The Textile Council was incorporated on the 22nd of July 1988 and officially inaugurated on the 12th of December 1989. Those on the council act as a voice for the textile industry, from associations and organizations to business practicing spinning, weaving, knitting, dyeing, and garment manufacturing skill sets. Lee is confident and honored to be a part of The Textile Council, truly believing in their vision in being the voice of the textile industry. "I am so excited to have a chance to be able to learn from industry leaders, all the while hoping that I could also bridge a cohesion through sustainability to encourage collaboration and to better serve our industry and society. I hope to be able to innovate with a sustainable mindset, while contributing towards the economy and technological advancement of the textile industry." - Anderson Lee, Vice Chairman of SFBC.

About Sustainable Fashion Business Consortium

Sustainable Fashion Business Consortium (SFBC) is a group of Hong Kong based companies in the textile and apparel sector committed to promoting and increasing the use of sustainable practices across the fashion supply chain. With the pressing issue of global warming, air and water pollution, and the ever increase of waste disposal pits, SFBC has a vision to create a platform to continuously improve textile and apparel manufacturing processes and procedures throughout the supply chain in order to minimize the industry's impact on the environment.

About The Textile Council

Textile Council of Hong Kong comprises ten major textiles associations and is a non-profit making organization. It represents the entire Hong Kong textile industry whose business activities range from spinning, weaving, knitting, dyeing and finishing, garment making and the manufacture of textile goods.
